Welcome to Kirkby Lonsdale Rugby Club

Mini rugby is all about having fun and every Sunday, throughout the season, we have hundreds of children from Under 6 (the Micros) to Under 16 enjoying our wonderful game.

Our coaches, all volunteers, having taken courses to help them deliver fun and engaging sessions, provide coaching which is age specific to help your child get the most out of it.

Helping our coaches, we have some of our senior rugby players and coaching staff joining in. At Kirkby Lonsdale our inclusiveness and one club ethos is central to everything we do as are the core values of rugby; Teamwork, Respect, Enjoyment, Discipline and sportsmanship; all values that work on and off the pitch.

While the children are playing, parents and guardians have the perfect opportunity to become part of our family, enjoying a hot drink and a bacon roll from our clubhouse, meeting with other parents and, if you want, get involved with the club helping on or off the pitch. Many a strong friendship has started around the club for players and their families.

We'd like to invite you and your family to come and sample life at the club, to come and watch and take part. For new players of all ages we provide 2 sessions free. If you like it, you can join as a junior player for just £70 per season (£50 for subsequent siblings). The new season starts on the 2nd September at 10.30am. If you would like to come and have a go or have any questions please contact ben@klrufc.co.uk who can answer any questions you may have and introduce you to your age group coaches.

A word from our sponsor

"It's a really exciting time for the team at Kirkby Lonsdale. Not only are they starting a session unbeaten, they are providing such wonderful opportunities for children and young adults to learn a team sport, keep fit, have fun and enjoy the beautiful landscape.

We, at Pye Motors have been a strong and invested part of the community for over 90 years now and are proud to support Kirkby Lonsdale and the community around us."

The Club's Anti-Bullying Policy

It is the policy of the Club to protect children and young people under the age of 18 playing youth rugby from possible bullying. The Club takes the problem of bullying seriously. Bullying is not always easy to define, can take many forms and is usually repeated over a period of time. Bullying is not limited to an adult bullying a young person; it is often the case that the bully is a young person.

There are three main types of bullying:

- Physical (e.g. hitting, kicking, theft)
- Verbal (e.g. racist or homophobic remarks, threats, name calling)
- Emotional (e.g. persistent negative feedback, isolating an individual from activities)

All of these will include:

- Deliberate hostility and aggression towards a victim
- A victim who is weaker and less powerful than the bully or bullies
- An outcome which is always painful and distressing to the victim

Bullying behaviour may also include:

- Other forms of violence
- Sarcasm, spreading rumours, persistent teasing or theft
- Tormenting, ridiculing, humiliation
- Racial taunts, graffiti, gestures
- Unwanted physical contact or abusive or offensive comments of a sexual nature

The competitive nature of Rugby Union makes it a potential environment for the bully. This may manifest itself in some of the following ways:

- A parent who pushes too hard
- A coach who adopts a "win at all costs" philosophy
- A player who intimidates others
- Racial taunts, graffiti, gestures
- An official who is over officious

In the first instance, incidents of bullying should be reported to the Club via its Child Protection/Welfare Officer. Club members must be alert to the signs of bullying and refer cases promptly. Failure to respond to incidents may be interpreted as condoning the behaviour – the Club wishes to avoid giving this impression to bullies and victims alike.

In the event of an incident of bullying being reported to the Club, the Club will:

- Investigate the incident
- Talk separately to the those accused of bullying and their alleged victims

In the event of an incident of bullying being reported to the Club, the Club will:

- Obtaining an apology from the bully(ies) to the victim(s)
- Informing the parents of the bully(ies)
- Insisting on the return of items "borrowed" or stolen
- Insisting the bully(ies) compensate the victim(s)
- Holding Club or age group discussions about bullying
- Provide support for the lead coach of the victim(s)
- Invite the individual to a disciplinary meeting/ sanctions imposed

(C) THE GOOD PARENT'S CODE

Club and Schools should encourage parents and guardians to:

- (a) Be familiar with the coaching and training programme in order that they can ensure their child is fully involved and the coaches are aware of their availability.
- (b) Be familiar with the teaching and coaching methods used by observing the coaching and training sessions in which their child participates.
- (c) Be aware that the Club or School has a duty of care to ensure the safety of players and therefore, where appropriate, assist coaches with the supervision of the players, particularly where numbers are large and there is a need to transport players to away games.
- (d) Be involved with Club and School activities and share their expertise.
- (e) Share concerns, if they have them, with Club or School officials.
- (f) Be familiar with the Good Coaches' Code contained in the RFU Continuum. In particular, be aware that:
 - Coaches should recognise the importance of fun and enjoyment when coaching players
 - Coaches should keep winning and losing in perspective, encourage players to behave with dignity in all circumstances.
- (g) Support coaches in installing these values.
- (h) Remember that young people play rugby for their own enjoyment not that of their parents.
- (i) Encourage young people to play do not force them.
- (j) Focus on the players' efforts, rather than winning or losing.
- (k) Be realistic about the players' abilities; do not push them towards a level they are not capable of achieving.
- (l) Provide positive verbal feedback both in training and during the game.
- (m) Remember that persistent, negative messages will adversely affect the players and referees performance and attitude.
- (n) Always support the Club and School in their efforts to eradicate loud, coarse and abusive behaviour from the game.
- (o) Remember young people learn much by example.
- (p) Always show appreciation of good play by all players both from their own Club or School and the opposition.
- (q) Respect decisions made by the match officials, even if they appear to be a mistake, and encourage players to do likewise.

(D) THE GOOD SPECTATOR'S CODE

Club and Schools should encourage spectators to:

- (a) Act as positive role models to all players.
- (b) Be familiar with, and abide by, the RFU Child Protection Guidelines in relation to verbal and emotional abuse.
- (c) Respect guidance from the Club or School with regard to spectator behaviour.
- (d) Remember children play sport primarily for their own enjoyment, not for that of spectators.
- (e) Acknowledge good individual and team performance from all players irrespective of the team in which they play.
- (f) Respect match officials' decisions, even if they appear to be a mistake remember, they are volunteers providing an opportunity for players to play rugby.
- (g) Never verbally abuse players, coaches, match officials or fellow spectators.
- (h) Acknowledge effort and good performance rather than 'to win at all costs'.
- (i) Verbally encourage all players in a positive manner, shouting 'for' not 'at' the players.
- (j) Encourage all players irrespective of their ability - never ridicule any individual player, regardless of the team in which they play.

- (g) Shall not engage in any conduct or any activity on or off the field that may impair public confidence in the honest and orderly conduct of a match, tour, tournament or series of matches (including, but not limited to, the supply of information in relation to the game, directly or indirectly, to bookmakers) or in the integrity and good character of any person.
- (h) Shall promote the reputation of the game and take all possible steps to prevent it from being brought into disrepute.
 - (i) Shall not commit an anti-doping rule violation as defined in regulation 21;
 - (j) Shall not abuse, threaten or intimidate a referee, touch judge or other match official, whether on or off the field of play.
- (i) Shall not use crude or abusive language or gestures towards referees, touch judges or other match officials or spectators.
- (j) Shall not do anything which is likely to intimidate, offend, insult, humiliate or discriminate against any other person on the ground of their religion, race, colour or national or ethnic origin.
- (k) Shall not do anything which adversely affects the game of rugby football, the board, any member union or any commercial partner of the game.
- (l) Each union and association is under an obligation to:
- (m) Comply with and to ensure that each of its members comply with this code of conduct.

In all sport players are impressionable and their behaviour will often reflect that of the adults around them. At Kirkby Lonsdale RUFC we welcome spectators on our touchlines who embrace the ethos of the game as one of fun, enjoyment and skill development.

In Rugby Union spectators are encouraged to:

- Act as responsible role models
- Be familiar with, and abide by, the RFU codes of conduct in relation to verbal and emotional abuse.

KLRUFC Social Media Policy

Kirkby Lonsdale RUFC understand the importance of new technology for children and young people's development. However, we recognise that relevant safeguards need to be put in place by sports clubs to ensure children and young people remain safe whilst online or using social media. We ask that all parents/guardians spend a few minutes to read through and discuss this policy with their child/children and then sign and return this form to the Team Manager who will pass it onto the appropriate Club representative.

- I will be responsible for my behaviour when using the internet and other online media at the sports club, including the resources I access and my use of language.
- I will not deliberately browse, download or access material that could be considered offensive or illegal. If I accidentally come across any such material, I will report this to an adult.
- I will not use social networking or the internet to send anyone material that could be considered threatening, offensive, upsetting, bullying or illegal.
- I understand that my use of the internet and other online media on club ICT equipment can be monitored, logged and made available to my coach and other staff members at the club.
- I will not give out any of my personal information such as name, age, address or telephone number. I will not share my passwords with anyone else.
- I will not arrange to meet someone unless accompanied by a member of staff or parent/guardian. I understand that these rules are designed to keep me safe and if they are not followed my parents/guardians may be contacted.

We have discussed this policy and (name of child) agrees to support the safe use of ICT at Kirkby Lonsdale RUFC.
